What Does WMC Do?

Sundays in the Huntington

In this free recital series at Capital University, WMC members take the stage to perform as soloists and in a variety of ensembles. A sampling of our chamber ensembles:

- Aurora Quartet
- Columbus Cellos
- Sonora Trio
- Amalia Consort

Member Musicales

Our musicians perform and discuss composers and music in a relaxed social setting

Call for Scores

WMC periodically sponsors a Call for Scores from women composers, soliciting dozens of new works from composers throughout the country. These new compositions are often featured on our Huntington and Member Musicales performances.

Educational Programs

WMC frequently presents musical programs at local schools and provides students with hands-on musical experience on various instruments.

Student Competition

- Young Artist Competition, for string players ages 15 and under
- Mary Lane Violin Competition, sponsored by Dr. Tom Leshar in honor of Mary Lane, longtime WMC member and music educator
- Scholarship Competition, for college-age musicians on any instrument or voice part

Dues

When dues are received by August 1, the member's name will appear in the WMC yearbook.
